SUBJECT: IRAQ: CROATIA OFFERS WEAPONS AND TRAINING TO NATO
TRAINING MISSION

REF: ZAGREB 983 AND PREVIOUS

Classified By: Political Officer Tom Selinger for reasons 1.4 (b) & (d)

¶1. (C) SUMMARY AND COMMENT: Assistant Minister of Foreign Affairs Pjer Simunovic provided PolOff November 9 with a list of weapons and training courses the GoC has offered to the NATO Training Mission in Iraq (NTM-I). Weapons range from 500 x 7.62mm assault rifles to 10 x 82mm recoilless guns, while training includes courses for military police, navy divers, and military dogs and their handlers. According to Simunovic, Croatia's mission to NATO turned the list in to NATO Operations on November 3.

¶2. (C) While the GoC is unable to send troops to Iraq, this offer of equipment and training reflects its commitment to furthering its engagement in other ways, including plans to open a permanent diplomatic mission in Baghdad (reftels).
END SUMMARY AND COMMENT.
